Your Guarantee of Satisfaction

Our commitment is to give full satisfaction to our students. We are so confident of our ability to do so that we offer a full money back guarantee. At the end of the course, should a participant believe that the Teacher Training Program has not kept its promises and has been of no value to them, we will refund their money.

Conditions of the INNER PEACE guarantee

- Students will need to have completed all modules of the Course without exception. This includes all retreats and weekend workshops as outlined in the prospectus, as well as having submitted at least 80% of the written work and presented their Major Assignment to the group.
- Students will have shown their own commitment by honouring their financial agreement and have kept up to date with their monthly payment.
- Students will have communicated in writing any dissatisfaction regarding a particular aspect of the Course, within a reasonable time (maximum four weeks) of the unsatisfactory event occurring.

Financial terms for students who might wish to leave the Course before its completion

We do expect students to complete their Course and will do our outmost to support and encourage all participants to do so. However, if for unforeseen circumstances, a student wishes to leave prior to completion, here are the terms of an early termination:

The $1,945 (early bird) or $1,990 (full price) deposit is non-refundable at any time.

Students who pay by monthly installments will stop paying the $455 monthly fee at the time of their withdrawal from the course. If, for whatever reason, they are not up to date with their payments, they will owe $455 per month up until the time they decide to leave the course.

Students who have prepaid the course in full will receive a final invoice equal to what the students who pay by installments would have paid. The difference between the amount paid and the amount due will be refunded by INNER PEACE within 30 days.
